Welcome New Parishioners! If you would like to register or you have changed your address, please fill out the form on page 5. Those moving from the parish are also asked to contact the rectory. Thank you!

In Advent, we celebrate our hope that the Lord might come more fully into our lives. The first reading from Isaiah voices the hope of sinners for a redeemer. As sinners, we too hope for forgiveness. Unlike Isaiah, we know that God has come to bring us back, when the Father sent his Son, Jesus, to save us. And God's power was manifest in the raising of Christ from the dead. Our faith in Jesus leads us to a new way of looking at the world. We can see what God is doing as well as remembering what God has done.

The Gospel reminds us to look constantly for signs of God's work. Jesus says simply, "Watch!" Like the gatekeepers in Jesus' short parable, we need to keep our eyes open for him. Just as we expect people driving cars to turn off their cell phones and keep their eyes on the road, so we can stop looking for whatever makes us comfortable and watch for ways to love others as God loves us.

When we only look out for ourselves, we may miss the signs of God's presence around us. Instead of looking at the difficulties of life as obstacles, we can watch for them as opportunities to stretch our faith, to rely on God, or to show God's love to a friend. The recent re-translation of the prayers of the Mass can be an opportunity to stretch our faith and our understanding of the Eucharist.

The Corinthians were also watching for the Lord to come. Paul encourages them (and us) by his reminder that we "are not lacking in any spiritual gift" (1 Corinthians 1:7). The Holy Spirit gives us all we need to help each other prepare for the Lord's coming. They were thinking of Jesus as coming in glory. Though we don't see the full glory of the Lord, part of that glory is his presence in the sacraments. In them we celebrate not just the coming of the Lord, but his working in the world. He shares his life with us in baptism, gives us his Spirit in confirmation and himself in the Eucharist, heals us in reconciliation and the anointing of the sick, and calls us to make him present to others in holy orders and matrimony. You could almost say his second coming is taking place now. Watch for it.

THANK YOU - I wish to thank Dick Blais for his hard work in putting the new racks into the pews of the church. This is so helpful for the music books and missalettes. Thank you, Dick!

I also want to thank the St. Vincent de Paul Society, plus the many other people who assisted, for their hard work on the Thanksgiving food baskets. Many families were taken care of and assisted by the generosity of the people from this parish.

ALCOHOL, DRUGS, SUICIDE - Projections about events that will happen in the future can give us something to think about. No one knows the future except God and there are various events that can happen which can literally change the course of history. 9/11 is certainly one of them.

That being said there are some studies that can make some projections which we ought to listen to. A recent reliable study projected that deaths due to alcohol, drugs, and suicide will 'skyrocket' in the next decade. It is also projected that of the 50 states, New Hampshire will rank 4th in these projected deaths. That is not good to say the least! Something is wrong here!

With all the technology at our disposal, plus the emphasis on worldly advancement, God has been shut out in the lives of many people. The results are that people are not happier and the world is not a better place.

We are now entering in the holy season of Advent. Before we realize it, Christmas will be here. Jesus Christ is the reason for it. I hope and pray that people can stop, think and reflect upon Jesus and His message. If more people did that, the world would be a better place and we would have less alcohol, drugs and suicide deaths.

CONGRATULATIONS - to Nashua Catholic Junior High School on their recent reception of the Blue Ribbon Award for school excellence. This is an award given out by the government only to very few schools. A special flag raising ceremony in honor of the award took place on Monday, November 20. I was there for it along with our school Principal, Cindy Clarke. In addition, Bishop Libasci, Mayor Donchess, and a representative from the office of Congresswoman Annie Kuster participated as well. It was a wonderful event. Congratulations to them.

PRAYERS - Please remember in your prayer Margaret Lavoie. Her Funeral Mass was held here this past week.

WELCOME TO THE BAPTIZED - We welcome into God's family the church, the following babies who were baptized here recently:

- Henry Matthew Giokas, infant son of Matthew & Megan Giokas
- Addison Danielle Brodsky, infant daughter of Jonathan & Stephanie Brodsky

We pray that both of these babies will have long and happy lives in service to Christ and His Church.

FINANCE COMMITTEE - will meet on Wednesday evening, December 6 at 6:30 PM in the rectory.

THE FEAST OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION - is celebrated this week.

Masses are as follows:

- Thursday evening, December 7 at 7:00 PM
- Friday morning, December 8 at 7:15 and at 9:15 AM (School Mass).

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS- Next weekend (December 9 & 10), the collection for the sick and retired religious takes place in churches throughout the country. With the rising costs of insurance and health care, their needs are greater than ever. Please be as generous as possible. These men and women gave a lifetime in service. Please help them in their time of need.

FIRST RECONCILIATION - Our congratulations go out to the children who received the sacrament of Penance for the first time on Saturday, December 2nd. We pray that they will receive this sacrament frequently for the rest of their lives.

DEANERY PENANCE SERVICE - a Deanery Penance Service will take place on Sunday, December 9 at 2:00 PM at Immaculate Conception Church, 216 E. Dunstable Road, here in Nashua. All are welcome and encouraged to attend. Receiving the sacrament of Penance is the best way to prepare for Christmas, so we hope that as many people as possible will come. Many priests from throughout the Deanery will be assisting. Come and receive the healing gifts of the sacrament of Penance before Christmas.

Got Cards?

Help us spread some Christmas Cheer! The Religious Education program will be participating in a service project to create hand decorated Christmas cards for delivery to several area nursing home residents as well as the retired priests at the Bishop Peterson residence. We are collecting your unwanted (old and new) Christmas cards. These will be cut (any names/messages will be removed) and repurposed to create a new Christmas message for a resident who may benefit from a heartfelt Merry Christmas from a youngster. Please place your donated cards in the labelled collection boxes located at the entrances to the church over the next few weeks. When the box is gone- we have enough! Our project takes place on December 17th. Thank you in advance for your generosity. Please contact Chris Mercurio at cmercurio@stchristparishnh.org with any questions.

Christmas Gifting Tree

Our Gifting Tree is up and ready for you to select an ornament (or two). The tree is located in the St. Christopher Alcove. Please purchase the gift written on the ornament and place the gift "unwrapped" under the tree. Please return the gifts by December 17 as all the gifts will be delivered to Fairview Nursing Home December 18.

The recipients of this year's St. Christopher Parish Gifting Tree are the seniors living at Fairview Nursing Home. Thank you for your generosity.

St. John Roberts

John was born in Wales to Anna and John Roberts. Although he was not a Catholic, he was taught by an elderly priest and at heart he was always a Catholic.

John went to Oxford University in England for a few years before going to study law. He then took a trip to France to have a good time. But his trip turned out to be more than fun.

It was in Paris, France, that another Englishman who was Catholic had great influence on him and John found great happiness in joining the Catholic Church.

John lost no time after this in taking steps to become a priest. He went to an English college in Spain and became a Benedictine monk.

Then his great dream of going back to England came true three years later when he and another monk were given permission to go. They knew the dangers they would face because Catholics were not welcome there, especially not priests.

In fact, they did not have long to wait before trouble began. They entered England wearing plumed hats and swords at their sides. But soon they were arrested for being priests and sent out of the country.

St. John Roberts managed to return to England again. He worked day and night to keep the Catholic faith alive during Queen Elizabeth's terrible persecution. Several times he was captured, put in prison, and exiled, yet he always returned.

The last time Father John was arrested, he was finishing Mass. This time there was no escape. When asked, he boldly said that he was a priest and a monk.

He explained that he had come to England to work for the salvation of the people. "Were I to live longer," he added, "I would continue to do what I have been doing." St. John was then condemned to death.

The night before he was to be hanged, a good Spanish lady arranged for him to have supper with eighteen other prisoners. They were also suffering for Christ's sake.

During their supper together, St. John was full of joy. Then he thought perhaps he should not show so much happiness. "Do you think I may be giving bad example by my joy?" he asked his hostess.

"No, certainly not," she replied. "You could not do anything better than to let everyone see the cheerful courage you have as you are about to die for Christ."

The next day, St. John was hanged. The crowds were so attracted by the personality of this young priest that they did not let the executioners make him suffer. St. John Roberts was martyred in 1610.

Family Connection to this Week's Gospel

Gospel Reading: Mark 13:33-37

Jesus warns his disciples to be watchful so that they will be ready when the Son of Man comes.

In family life, we try to prepare ourselves for many future things: our next vacation, our children's education, our retirement. We are careful not to allow ourselves to be caught by surprise so that we can handle any challenges our family may face. Today's Gospel reminds us that we are called to be just as attentive and alert to the coming of the Son of Man so that it will not catch us unprepared. This means attending to our family's spiritual life as carefully as we attend to other important family matters.

As you gather as a family, talk about a time when you received surprise visitors at your house, perhaps a neighbor who stopped by or a relative who arrived unannounced. Was your household prepared to receive this unannounced guest? What might your family have done differently if you knew ahead of time that this visitor was going to arrive? Jesus told his disciples that no one knows when the Son of Man will return, except the Father. Read with your family what Jesus told his disciples in today's Gospel, Mark 13:33-37.

During Advent, we not only prepare ourselves to celebrate the birth of Jesus, we also check to see if we are doing all the things that will keep us ready to receive Jesus when he comes again. Talk about how your family can recommit to daily prayer, reading Scripture, and staying faithful to God's commandments. Pray together that through this Advent season your family will be more prepared to receive Jesus when he comes again. Read as a concluding prayer Paul's words to the Corinthians found in today's second reading, 1 Corinthians 1:3-9, or pray the Lord's Prayer.

About Our Catholic Faith:

Advent Wreaths

Traditionally, Advent wreaths are constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which four candles are inserted, representing the four weeks of Advent. Ideally, three candles are purple and one is rose, but white candles can also be used.

The purple candles in particular symbolize the prayer, penance, and preparatory sacrifices and good works undertaken at this time. The rose candle is lit on the third Sunday, Gaudete Sunday, when the priest also wears rose vestments at Mass; Gaudete Sunday is the Sunday of rejoicing, because the faithful have arrived at the midpoint of Advent, when their preparation is now half over and they are close to Christmas.

The progressive lighting of the candles symbolizes the expectation and hope surrounding our Lord's first coming into the world and the anticipation of his second coming to judge the living and the dead.

Prayer to Saint Michael

With so many challenges confronting us these days, we need help and strength to meet them head on. Please join us in praying daily that through the intercession of Saint Michael, we will remain faithful and strong in the Lord's service and in defending the Truth which resides in the Church!

St. Michael the Archangel defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do Thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl around the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit, Spirit of wisdom and divine love, impart Your knowledge, understanding, and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God. Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service. Amen.

In the Words of Pope Francis

"There is also hope for those who have done wrong. Jesus came for this: it is possible to be reconciled with God and begin a new life."

Pope Francis I @ Pontifex
November 24, 2017
